FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The N. Y. World says the Cincinnati Convention gave the nation a candidate without purpose and a platform without meaning.

The New York St. Louis is entirely satisfied with Tilden's nomination and the platform, and will support them cordially. It says that it has been evident for some time that Tilden would be nominated, but none the less we thank God that it is done. This nomination opens a way for escape from the evils and dangers which threaten the Republic.

A dispatch from Salinas, dated June 28th, says: The Coast Line stage was robbed fifteen miles below Salinas, about twelve o'clock last night, by two men. They took the treasure box, and also robbed the passengers. It is not known what they obtained.

From Laporte, under date of June 28th, we have the report which says: The Laporte stage was stopped twenty-five miles above here last evening by two masked men. Wells Fargo & Co. had an iron treasure box bolted down in the bottom of the stage. This was opened and rifled. The robbers only got twenty dollars.

In San Francisco, Calusa, Yreka, Stockton, Virginia City, and other ports, the news of the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks was received with great enthusiasm.

A report reached this city yesterday that the placer mines had been struck in Soledad Canon.

The political editorials of the Express remind one of a drunken man trying to lift himself by the waistband of his pants.

We regret to notice the despondency manifested by the Federal officials about this city since the nomination of TILDEN and HENDRICKS. Place your house in order gentlemen. Your time will soon be up.

Mr. Bassett of the HERALD said this morning at an early hour, "They only nominate Hendricks for Vice-President, the devil himself can't beat the ticket." We can only remark that the latter gentleman is not running on the Republican ticket.—Republican.

The gentleman in black is not, perhaps, on the ticket, but if we may judge from the oppression and misery the Republican party has brought upon the people we are justified in saying that a couple of his favorite lieutenants are running on the ticket.

MEN sometimes work for years to accomplish a certain purpose, and discover just as the end is attained that there is nothing in it. When one desires to kiss a pretty girl, and after much time and persuasion obtains the coveted favor only to discover that she has abominable breath, there is a perceptible feeling that the reality hardly equals the anticipation. Some such sensation will, we think, glide along the spinal column of the proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle in a short time. For the past eight years that paper has been fighting for the Associated Press dispatches, and now when another Association is furnishing more, better and later dispatches for less money, the Chronicle is admitted into the Associated Press ring.

Why Bristow Was Not Nominated.

Said an intelligent and over average fair minded Republican the other day: "It is plain to all why BRISTOW was not the Cincinnati nominee. He meant reform, and reform is just what the managers of the Republican party do not want." This is as true as Holy Writ, and it is this truth that has created feelings of doubt and distrust in the rank and file of the party as to the honesty of their leaders. BRISTOW is an honest man, and it was this rare characteristic among Republican leaders that forced him from President GRANT's cabinet. He found knaves in high places. He discovered incompetent and dishonest officials plundering the people, and he inaugurated measures for freeing his department from this class of men. This brought about a demand for his resignation. He was a cabinet officer of the old school, and his notions of honesty were not at all in accord with the programme of the administration. He believed that the people had rights which should be protected. He believed that public officers were public servants, accountable to the people for their acts, and he believed that when an official proved himself derelict in the performance of his duty and dishonest in handling the people's money, he should be called to account and, if found guilty, dealt out the same punishment that is inflicted on every other thief. For entertaining these old time opinions BRISTOW was thrown out of the cabinet, and because he would not renounce them he was refused the Republican nomination for the Presidency.

Tilden and Hendricks.

Now the people have a prospect that peace and prosperity will once more revisit their homes. Now there are indications that retrenchment and reform will be heard of elsewhere than in party platforms and campaign speeches. Now there are grounds for hoping that the time is approaching when our nation's credit will be re-established, and her power and respectability once more acknowledged among the civilized nations of the world. It is now a foregone conclusion that Republican control of our government will cease on the fourth of next March. The nomination by the Democrats of Governor SAMUEL J. TILDEN, of New York, for President, and of Governor THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana, for Vice President, is a guarantee that the days of misrule and of criminal waste and extravagance are numbered. The declaration of principles as embodied in the platform is an earnest of the task to be performed, and the two gentlemen whose names head the Democratic ticket are men in whom the people have the utmost confidence. The ability and integrity of SAMUEL J. TILDEN and THOMAS A. HENDRICKS are known and recognized from Maine to Florida. The masses are proud of these men; they believe in them and will elect them. TILDEN and HENDRICKS are reformers in principle as well as profession, and they have the courage and honesty to practice what they believe. Governor TILDEN has saved the people of New York forty millions of dollars, and as President he will save the people of the United States hundreds of millions of dollars. After the fourth of next March we shall have an honest and economical government, and such a government insures reduced taxation and peace and prosperity to the people.

PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Steinberger, at last advised from New Zealand, was at Auckland taking it quietly.

Silver coin is 7 to 8 per cent. discount.

The Chinaman who attempted to assassinate Mrs. Millman has not been arrested, although the Chinese Companies have interested themselves in the investigation and are helping the officers.

An elderly woman was knocked down by a Mission street car near 5th street this afternoon, run over and her legs mangled.

Six more cases of small pox have been reported.

Jas. H. Ryan, the attorney who sold an adverse claim to the Phil Sheridan mine for 12,000 and failed to account for the money to his principal, Chas. Redmond, has been arrested on a charge of embezzlement preferred by Mr. Redmond.

The St. Louis Convention—Hendricks for Vice President.

ST. LOUIS, June 29th.—A large number of delegates and visitors have departed. A number of telegrams have been sent to Mr. Hendricks, urging him to accept the nomination for Vice President. An answer is expected from him this forenoon. If he accepts he will be nominated by acclamation. The Republican thinks the selection of Tilden will insure a victory for the Democrats. The Globe-Democrat thinks the Democrats could have taken no surer course to insure the election of Hayes and Wheeler than by nominating Tilden. It predicts Tilden's defeat by an overwhelming vote. When Indiana was called the convention rose en masse and cheered and cheered for five minutes, calling the name of Hendricks.

A telegram from Georgia nominated Hendricks. Senator McDonald of Indiana rose and said so far as Indiana was concerned the name of Hendricks was in the field after last evening; that if he was put in nomination the convention must take the responsibility that he could not say that Hendricks would accept.

It is almost certain that Hendricks will be nominated by acclamation. All favor him. Telegrams from Hendricks say he is in the hands of his friends, and will be governed by the action of the convention. Ex-Gov. Woodson of Missouri said he was glad that Indiana had the responsibility of nominating Hendricks. He is the representative of a grand State.

Gov. Ried of Missouri offered a resolution declaring Hendricks the unanimous choice.

Gov. Brown of Tennessee followed in a brief speech, pledging 20,000 majority to Hendricks in that State.

The Chair refused to put the question.

Mr. Abbott of New Jersey insisted that the question be put, which was finally done. The motion was lost, and the roll call of the States proceeded with more or less of a matter of form than anything else, he having already been nominated by acclamation. When Ohio was reached, Gen. Morgan announced the vote as solid for Hendricks, but as a number of delegates rose to their feet and cries of no, no, were heard, Gen. Morgan then corrected the vote, saying Ohio cast 36 for Hendricks and 33 for Tilden. The announcement was received with cheers. When Tennessee was called the delegates rose in a body and cast their vote.

Col. Williams of Indiana said the delegation from Indiana was not authorized to accept or decline for Mr. Hendricks, but for themselves they accepted.

John Kelley of New York took the platform and said that he had worked strenuously against the nomination of Tilden. He had done this because he believed the party would be stronger in the coming contest with a Western man. The Convention had decided differently and he yielded to that decision, and no man would work harder—and he had a capacity for work—(applause) than would he for the solid support of Tilden's election (cheers). He had great admiration and respect for that pure statesman, Thos. A. Hendricks, with whom he had served in Congress twenty years ago (great cheer). Mr. Kelley continued at some length, paying a tribute to the service of the Democratic House of Representatives for their action in exposing the corruption of the Administration, closing with an appeal for harmony and theirs would be the victory. Kelley was quite hoarse from his hard work of the past week.

Judge Hanna of Indiana followed briefly. He said the contest was over and the tomahawk was buried now, and the old guard of the Democracy would move to the front in solid array to achieve the great work of reform and purification.

Mr. Minor of Nebraska offered a resolution recommending to the managers of future Democratic Conventions the abrogation of the two-third rule.

It was decided the first business in order was the roll-call of States for the selection of a National Committee. The following is the list.

Alabama, Walter L. Bagley; Arkansas, J. J. Sumpter; California, McCoppin; Colorado, B. M. Hughes; Connecticut, W. H. Barnum; Delaware, H. Jackson; Florida, Woolfolk; Georgia, G. T. Barnes; Illinois, W. C. Gordy; Iowa, M. L. Hall; Kansas, James; Kentucky, E. Eaton; Louisiana, H. D. McHenry; Maine, B. F. Jones; Maryland, E. W. Thomason; Massachusetts, O. Horsey; Michigan, N. O. Prince; Minnesota, E. Katter; Mississippi, E. W. Wilson; Missouri, E. Barksdale; Nebraska, J. W. Smith; Nevada, G. L. Miller; New Hampshire, R. R. Keating; New Jersey, A. W. Sulloway; New York, Miles Ross; North Carolina, L. S. Hewitt; Ohio, W. Ransom; Oregon, J. J. Thompson; Pennsylvania, John Whitaker; Rhode Island, W. L. Scott; South Carolina, N. Van Steek; Tennessee, G. H. Ryan; Texas, M. B. Balto; Vermont, F. S. Stockdale; Virginia, B. B. Smalley; West Virginia, R. A. Coghill; Wisconsin, Alex. Canby.

W. F. Vilas of Wisconsin offered a resolution thanking the people of St. Louis for their hospitable and kind treatment.

Gov. Brown offered a resolution that a committee consisting of the President of the convention and one delegate from each of the States to wait upon Governors Tilden and Hendricks and inform them of their nomination. The resolution was adopted.

A resolution recommending the repeal of the two-thirds rule came up. Birch of Tennessee moved to lay it on the table. The motion to lay on the table was lost by a vote of 350 to 379.

A resolution recommending the admission of Territories at the convention was laid on the table.

The question came up on the adoption of the two-thirds rule resolution and Mr. Wallace of Pennsylvania called for a division of the question. He was in favor of the part requiring future State conventions to instruct their delegates, but not that portion which made this convention dictator to future conventions.

The division was had and the first proposition was lost.

Senator Kearney of New York said he was instructed by the delegation from New York to present to the President of the convention the portrait of Gov. Tilden now above the altar, and he would say to this convention that he believed Gov. Tilden and Gov. Hendricks would sweep the country in November, and after the 4th of March next the President would do some more sweeping. He would sweep the carpet buggers from the South and the thieves from the North.

On motion of Mr. Williams, at 12:30 p. m. the convention adjourned sine die.

After the adjournment a portion of the delegates and spectators remained in the hall and were addressed by Hon. C. M. Preston of Kentucky and other speakers.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The Herald editorially, referring to Tilden's nomination, says: He never held an important office till elected Governor of New York less than three years ago. He never was in Congress, never held a position of trust under the federal government. He lacks experience, and yet by his extraordinary capacity for politics he has distanced all competitors. Tilden's nomination is not, however, equivalent to his election. He is undoubtedly the strongest and most popular nominee the Democratic party could have made. The chances for his carrying New York are doubtful. If he wins in this State, he wins everything; if he loses this State, he loses everything. With its own party divided, and with the addition of adversaries thoroughly united, with the full influence of federal patronage exerted against him, and the discouraging effect of the probable Republican victories in the Northern States, Tilden enters upon the unequal contest.

The Herald congratulates the country on the financial plank of the platform of both parties and says we shall have a safe administration and steady progress towards specie payment and business prosperity whether Hayes or Tilden carries off the honors.

The Times says Tilden's nomination means that the Democrats have abandoned in advance all hopes of carrying our State, and place their sole reliance on the chances of a solid vote of the Southern States, South Carolina excepted, with the addition of the votes of the Pacific coast, and New Jersey, Connecticut and New York. On this basis they would have 193 votes in the Electoral College, being eight more than a majority.

Deduct New York from the Democratic calculating machine, and the majority is changed into a minority. The Democrats have therefore deliberately settled on New York as the battle ground of the campaign, and staked everything on carrying this State. It warns the Republicans not to undervalue his strength in New York. His candidacy forces upon the Republicans a campaign of hard, honest and systematic work, and the necessity of nominating their best men for State officers.

The World eulogizes both the St. Louis nominees and the platform. It says St. Louis responds to Cincinnati first by nominating a candidate whose name is a symbol of unflinching reform on a platform which means a peaceful revolution in the whole spirit and conduct of the Government of this country. It urges unity among all conflicting elements of the party. The Tribune says: The St. Louis Convention has placed an admirable candidate on a bad platform. It was wise to nominate for President its very strongest man. His nomination is a triumph of principle which gave rise to the unconditional repeal of 1872, and which every side joins. In the approaching contest we shall have a President of high personal character, honest record and sympathies and associations. It is considered that the shuffling pharisees in the platform respecting currency will be the policy of the one at Cincinnati, a platform of reform in this state, and without carrying New York the Democrats have not the remotest chance of winning. There is only one practical declaration in the platform, that is the demand for the unconditional repeal of resumption. There is no pledge to resume at any time, no word of condemnation for inflation hearsay, but only steps which have been taken toward resumption. The Democrats insist on retracting, and they offer to substitute for the one at Cincinnati, a platform unsatisfactory to honest men, because it said too little, but it said nothing. The Democratic party at St. Louis is committed to a course of national dishonor, and avers in advance that it will not move to the front in solid array to achieve the great work of reform and purification.

Mr. Minor of Nebraska offered a resolution recommending to the man-the battle away. The Republican nominee, by his letter of acceptance or in any other manner, should lead the people to believe his election would be a continuation of Grantism if he should follow on the currency question or show a leaning toward the corrupt disgraces.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29th.—Several leading Democrats have been interviewed and expressed the utmost gratification in Tilden's nomination. Advice from the interior say that the utmost enthusiasm prevails among the Democrats.

The Young Men's Democratic Club met last evening and had a hilarious time. All the speeches over the nomination and platform were of a very eulogistic character.

Still Another Card.

EDITORS HERALD.—The proprietor of the Santa Monica Hotel charged me nine dollars instead of six, as stated in the card of one of them published in your issue of yesterday. When I demurred, they said they would take six dollars. I tendered them five dollars, under the plea of robbery and not poverty. This was twice what their accommodations were actually worth. That sum they took. Their misunderstanding in regard to this matter are in keeping with the manner in which they keep a hotel. Respectfully yours, H. W. ROSE. Los Angeles, June 30, 1876.

Card from the Health Officer.

Having learned that it is currently reported in many portions of the county that there are several cases of small pox in this city, I take this occasion to state that I have carefully investigated every rumor and inquired of many physicians as to its existence and find none, and can further say there has not been a case in the city for many months past.

J. H. MCKEE, M. D., Health Officer. Los Angeles, June 29th, 1876.

Railroad to Colton.

We are told by good authority that if our people will prepare the road bed and lay the ties from here to Colton that the Southern Pacific will furnish the iron, build the road and run the rolling stock. If this is true, and we have no reason to doubt it, we should confer with the railroad company and close contract at once. This would not prevent the building of the Santa Monica road. To prepare the road bed and lay the ties from here to Colton would be estimated, to be done for $15,000. Men who are unable to pay money could turn out with their teams and pay their subscription with work. The road when completed would enhance the value of our property ten times the amount of the original cost. The interest of the Southern Pacific and our interest would then be a unit.—Argus.

"I would not for any money," says Jean Paul Richter, "have had money in youth." That's the way we feel. We would rather have it now.
"I can't find bread for my family," said a lazy fellow in a public company. "Nor I," replied an industrious miller, "I am obliged to work for it."
"Is your house a warm one, landlord?" asked a gentleman in search of a house. "It ought to be," was the reply; "the painter gave it two coats recently."
In response to an inquiry, "How can I keep my husband at home in evening?" the Rochester Democrat aptly suggests, "Take a club and try to drive him out."
A boy's idea of having a tooth drawn may be summed up as follows: "The doctor hitched fast on me; pulled his best, and just before it killed me the tooth came out."
"There's about 20,000 unmarried women in Philadelphia." Ah! ah! always thought this scheme of the Centennial covered up some deep-laid design against mankind.
Were we going to marry we wouldn't give one girl who can put a patch on a pair of pantaloons for fifty girls who can do nothing but work blue dogs, lying on a grass bank under a purple sky, in worsted.
At a wedding recently, when the clergyman asked the lady, "Will you give this man to be thy wedded husband?" she, with becoming modesty which lent her beauty an additional grace, replied, "If you please."

A philosopher says: "The wish or willingness to lean upon one another is ignoble; to lean on one's self alone is grand. That may do for a sentiment; but there are times when a lean on posts, or lean on another man's property is both profitable and interesting."
"May they always live in peace and harmony," was the way a Yankee marriage notice should have wound up; but the compositor, who couldn't read manuscript very well, put in type and hurried the happy couple by making it read: "May they always live on peas and hominy."
A set of false teeth that belonged to George Washington has been sent to Philadelphia, and will be exhibited at the Centennial. A patriotic citizen says he was very much relieved when he saw them, because if George had slipped up while crossing the Delaware he could have hung on the bottom of the boat with such teeth as those until the nation had time to turn out to his rescue.
A little fellow ran to his mother the other day and asked:
"Ma, can I have some bread and jam?"
His mother, wishing to break him of the vicious habit, replied:
"When I was your age I couldn't get anything to eat between meals if I wanted it."
"Yes," said the boy after a moment's pause, "but you didn't have a good, nice mamma, did you?"
That settled it in favor of the young flatterer.
"Charles, my darling Charles, promise me one thing," said the bride of a month, as she threw her arms around her husband's neck and gazed anxiously into his face. "What is it, precious?" he asked, as he drew her to his bosom. "Promise me, Charles, dear that you will not become a candidate for the Presidency?" "Why, my darling, that is asking a good deal," he replied, and his countenance darkened. There is Jones, Smith and Brown, and in fact, all the best people in the country are candidates. You want me to be somebody, don't you?" "Yes, yes, Charles, I do, I do," said the young wife, bursting into tears; "but all the newspapers will tell how big my feet are, and you know folks think that anybody's feet may be goodshaped if they are large."

Harper's Magazine.
ILLUSTRATED.
Notices of the Press.
The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind.—Boston Globe.
The character which this magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with it, has not let the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
Some of the most popular of modern novels have first appeared as serials in this magazine. In all respects it is an excellent periodical, and fully deserves its great success.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Harper's Bazar.
ILLUSTRATED.
Notices of the Press.
The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal, and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.
The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to children by its pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paternalists by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the festive enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.
In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and songs, are all inviting to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.

REASONS WHY REMINGTON FAMILY SEWING MACHINES Are Superior to All Others.
FIRST—THEIR SIMPLICITY.
The use of them is very easily acquired, and any girl of ordinary intelligence is capable of keeping them in order.
SECOND—THE CONSTRUCTION.
Of the Machine is such that it may be run at a higher rate of speed than any Shuttle Machine now in the market. In factories where the rate of speed has been registered, over 1,000 stitches per minute have been attained with ease.
THIRD—THEIR DURABILITY.
Being so strong in all their parts and fitted with great mechanical nicety, and being free from the harsh jarring movements and friction so common in inferior machines, they will wear a long time without repair of any kind.
FOURTH—THEIR ADAPTABILITY.
By a simple change of the needle and thread they will sew the finest cambric or the heaviest broad cloth in order.
FIFTH—THEY HAVE NO ROTARY CAMS, Cog-wheels or lever arms to make a noise, run hard, or to get out of order.
SIXTH—THEY HAVE AN ADJUSTABLE Feed which may be raised or lowered at pleasure.
SEVENTH—ALL THEIR MOVEMENTS are positive and they cannot be thrown out of time.
Manufactured by the Largest Manufacturing Company in America, possessing a world-wide reputation in the manufacture of their firearms, they afford a guarantee of perfection in work and construction.
No other sewing machine has ever been introduced so quickly and met with such rapid sale as the Felipe Garnier, Plaintiff, vs. Juana Lopez de Lazzarovich, her husband, and Juan Goyenche, Defendants.

UNDER and by virtue of a decree of foreclosure and sale entered in the District Court of the 17th Judicial District of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, on the 23rd day of May, A. D. 1876, in the above described suit, in favor of Felipe Garnier, Plaintiff, against Juana Lopez de Lazzarovich, her husband, and Juan Goyenche, Defendants, a certified copy whereof, duly attested and delivered to me on the 31st day of June, A. D. 1876, whereby I am commanded to sell at public auction, to the highest and best bidder for cash in U. S. gold coin, the following and in said decree described real estate, to-wit: All that piece, parcel or tract of land situate and lying and being in the city and county of Los Angeles, State of California, bounded and described as follows, viz: Commencing at the Southern corner of Fort and Jail, or Court streets, as the same was called May 1st, 1871, thence Southerly along the line of said Jail or Court street ninety (90) feet; thence Southerly sixty (60) feet to the line of the lot belonging to the heirs of W. H. Peterson, deceased; thence Northwesterly along said line of the lot of said W. H. Peterson, deceased, to the line of the lot of said Felipe Garnier, Plaintiff, beginning; being a portion of the same premises described by A. Preuss to Juana Lopez de Warren by deed of date April 10th, 1874, and recorded in book No. 12 of deeds, page 535 et seq., record of Los Angeles county. Public notice is hereby given that on Friday, the 30th day of June, A. D. 1876, at 12 o'clock noon, I will proceed to sell at court house door in the city and county of Los Angeles, State of California, the above described real estate, to the highest and best bidder for cash in U. S. gold coin, to satisfy said decree and all costs and accruing costs, all the above described real estate.
Even under my hand this 31st day of June, A. D. 1876. J. W. ALEXANDER, Sheriff.

SEWING MACHINES!
If you are waiting to try a Sewing Machine, try a new Wilson and you will have no other.
A trial will convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all others, being adjustable in all its parts, every movement being positive, with a perfect tension and adjustable feed. It is a simple, strong, durable and cheap, light and rapid running, doing all the different varieties of sewing from the finest fabric to the heaviest cloth or leather.
The latest improved Wilson will not run backwards, thereby avoiding the breakage of needles and thread, and necessitating the removal of the goods from the machine while winding the bobbins, as is the case with all other machines. HIGHEST PREMIUM! THE WORLD'S FAIR, Vienna 1873. A very important award was made to the Wilson, called by the name of the inventor, to be given to the purchaser elsewhere. To try one is to buy one.

YOUNG MEN
Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character, which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would therefore say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you neglect your complaint. You may be in the first stage of the disease, and you may be in the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering from one or all of its effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance, when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can save you from the inevitable results of your treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave.
